

Providing training to ensure the highest quality of care

Invitation to Upcoming Seminar

“Quis Custodiet ipsos Custodes?”
(Who minds the minders?)

Venue: Adare Manor Hotel, Co. Limerick

Date: Thursday, 2nd of July

Time: 3pm until 6pm.

Target Audience: Nursing Home Owners and Managers

- ❖ Briefing Seminar on Governance and Management
- ❖ Focus on Key Issues and Risks facing Nursing Homes in light of H.I.Q.A. standards
- ❖ Presented by a panel of experienced high-level experts

Places are complimentary but are limited so please book your place early to avoid disappointment.

For more information or to book your place please call David from South West Healthcare Skillnet on 021 4630915 or email admin@healthcarenet.ie.

Speaker Profile

Eamon Timmins

Eamon Timmins is Head of Advocacy and Communications of Age Action Ireland. A graduate of the College of Commerce Rathmines and the University of Leicester, he worked as a journalist for 19 years before joining Age Action Ireland. Age Action Ireland is an organisation with a mission to “achieve fundamental change in the lives of all older people by empowering them to live full lives as actively engaged citizens and to secure their rights to comprehensive high quality services according to their changing needs”.

Susan Shine, Solicitor and Training Consultant, La Touche Training

Susan is a Solicitor and Trainer with La Touche Training. Prior to joining La Touche Training, Susan worked in a general practice firm of solicitors for 4 years specialising in the area of civil litigation. Her cases covered personal injury, employment law, debt collection, defamation and family law. She has experience of designing and delivering law courses to healthcare staff in private and public hospitals. She regularly gives seminars to doctors on negligence, mental health law and issues relating to care of the elderly.

Dr Kieran Doran, School of Medicine, University College Cork

Kieran is a qualified as a Solicitor and trained with Beauchamps Solicitors in Dublin. Whilst Kieran practiced widely in the Medical Law area, he also undertook work in Personal Injury, Public and Employer Liability cases, as well as general Insurance Law work. Kieran did his Ph. D on Medical Ethics in Chicago and worked in a major Chicago Hospital on Risk Management.

Kieran took up his current position in U.C.C. in November 2006 and is an Associate Lecturer in Healthcare Risk Management in Dublin Institute of Technology, as well as lecturing in Medical Ethics & Law in the Royal College of Surgeons. Kieran also tutors at the Law Society in Cork and Dublin in Employment Law, whilst he continues to lecture in Employment Law and Health & Safety Law at the National College of Ireland. Kieran also acts in a Consultative Role with the Irish College of General Practitioners and the Irish Dental Association.

Mary Cullen, Managing Director, Insight HR

Co-founder of Insight HR, Mary has over 15 years experience in Human Resources Management both as a HR Manager and a HR Consultant. She has worked across the business, public service, community and voluntary sectors, with considerable experience in the field of human resources management. A graduate of the National College of Ireland with a Diploma in Personnel Management, Mary is a member of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development. She holds an Honours Bachelor of Arts Degree from NUI Dublin, is qualified in Occupational Testing from the British Psychological Association and is a certified Trainer with the Irish Institute of Training and Development. Mary specialises in redundancy management, employment law compliance, conflict management and senior executive recruitment.

John Sweeney, Managing Director, Healthcare Informed

Prior to establishing Healthcare Informed, John held the position of Director of Research and Development with the Irish Health Services Accreditation Board. In this role he had overall responsibility for the development of the Acute Care and Residential Care Accreditation Standards. This included the coordination of significant service user consultation.

Before this he was the Director of the Irish Society for Quality and Safety in Healthcare (ISQSH) where he instigated the National Patient Perception of Care Survey. He is an honorary lecturer of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland and sits on the Advisory Committee of the European Forum for Quality in Healthcare.